

Supporting CommUnity

Suicide Talk; a Conversation to Create Awareness

Suicide can be a very scary and difficult topic for many people to discuss. However, only an open and honest conversation about the issue of suicide helps remove the stigma and taboo. Every single person can participate in this type of conversation which helps to create a strong, positive community that encourages 'help-seeking' behavior for people of every age.