

Leading Through Recovery 2021 and Beyond

Webinar series presented by Supporting CommUnity, Inc. in partnership with Colorado Parks and Recreation Association (CPRA)

February 23 & 25
March 23 & 25
April 27 & 29

1 p.m. MST for all webinars
.1 CEU credit

Package webinar rate
$150 CPRA member
$160 nonmembers

Individual webinar rate
$35 CPRA member
$45 nonmember

Register here!

Accountability; It's Everybody's Responsibility--February 23

Lori A. Hoffner

We will discuss how we move beyond understanding the need for accountability, to engaging your team in ways that wins their hearts, minds and commitment. Read more ...

Can I Bring my Pet Monkey to Work? Managing Employee Expression in an Expressive Age--Feb. 25

Chuck Passaglia

We live in a world in which anyone can – and frequently clamors to -- be heard. Unfortunately, what some people say or do can also interfere with work. Read more ...

Lessons from the Road to LeadHERship--March 25

Tiffany Johnson

This session will be both interactive and informative and will discuss tips and strategies for transitioning into leadership as a young or new professional. Read more ...

Whack-a-Mole is Not a Leadership Strategy--March 25

Lisa Paradis

Whether we've practiced it ourselves or have been a victim of the consequences, we've all been part of the Whack-a Mole approach to managing and leading organizations. Read more ...

Bouncing Back From Covid: Adapt, Innovate Overcome--April 27

Chris Nunes

Covid 19 has impacted the Parks and Recreation in the way we conduct our programs, services and facilities. Professionals had to re-imagine how to operate in these challenging times. Read more ...

Social Togetherness During Social Distancing--April 29

Brian VanDongen

Play and recreation brings people together, forms common bonds and encourages socializing, and usually with the benefits of being outdoors and in nature. But what happens when a pandemic takes this social togetherness away? Read more...